ARTEMIS: PREVENTING SEXUAL HARASSMENT & ABUSE AMONG PRIMARY SCHOOL STUDENTS

LATEST NEWS

With ARTEMIS project we expect to empower children and inspire educators. We are thrilled to share the latest developments and invite you to our final dissemination events! It has been an incredible journey fostering a safer and more understanding environment for primary school children.

ANIMATED SHORT FILMS – FINAL STAGE

We are delighted to announce that our two animated videos are in their final production stages! These original stories are specifically aimed to primary school children, making complex topics accessible and easy to understand.

ABOUT THE VIDEOS

"Unwanted Touching": A gentle and empowering story to help children understand personal boundaries and how to speak up.

"Harmful Words": This video addresses the impact of words, promoting kindness and empathy among young learners.

FINAL STAGES

In the last months of the project, each partner will organize:

A National Dissemination Event

To share project results with schools, stakeholders, and the wider community. These events will take place in September.

A Final Workshop for Primary School Educators

Educators will be trained on how to use the videos and materials in their classrooms.

Each video will be available in six languages:

English |

French |

Portuguese |

Italian |

Greek |

Spanish

Subtitled and Sign Language versions will make them fully accessible.
